

MEMORIAL

Calhoun, Robert Eugene

Robert Eugene Calhoun was 54 when he passed away peacefully on Monday, August 19th, 2013 after a valiant battle with consuming cancer.

Robert-Eugene was living in The United States of America with his wife Yolanda and their Daughter Yainslie, who recently started college.

Robert-Eugene is also survived by his son, also named Robert, who followed his father's first vocation in world wide oil development.

Robert-Eugene had plans to move from his recent casino employment forced upon him into restaurant development for good-for-us family dining. He loved to host BBQs in his finely developed landscaping. He was forced to abandon this home spring 2013 by the consequences of Libor style malfeasant banking.

Robert-Eugene was a true believer in Truth and joyfully joined the State of Nevada reclamation with his other friends, and then moved with joy in to supporting, learning in the newly reclaimed and re-formed The United States of America, Confederacy of 1781, He served as a delegate to the United States in Congress assembled until his passing.

He will be missed, although there is joy held for him, now in the continuing service to Yahweh beyond this veil.

He was our cheerful, loyal, and stalwart friend.
